

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNTAIN (Lk 6)

Capo III

^D
Lifting up his eyes on his disciples, Jesus said:

^{G D}
Happy are you poor,
^{A D}
for yours is the kingdom of God (2x).

^{G D}
Happy are you that now are hungry,
^{A D}
for you shall be filled (2x).

^{G D}
Happy are you that now are weeping,
^{A D}
for you shall laugh.

^{Bm A}
Happy are you when men shall hate you
^G
and shall insult you,

^{F#}
on the account of the son of man!

^G
Rejoice in that day,
^{F#}
your reward is great in heaven.

^{D G D}
But woe to you that are rich,
^{A D}
for you already have your consolation.

^{G D}
Woe to you that now are full,
^{A D}
for you shall hunger.

^{G D}
Woe to you that now are laughing,
^{A D}
for you shall mourn and weep.

^{Bm A G}
Woe to you, when all men speak well of you,
^{F#}
so their fathers did to the false prophets.

^E
But to you who are listening I say:

^{A E}
Love your enemies,
^{B7 E}
do good to those who hate you.

^{A E}
Bless those who curse you,
^{B7 E}
pray for those who abuse you.

^{A E}
To him who strikes you on the cheek,
^{B7 E}
offer also the other;

^{A E}
and to him who takes away your coat
^{B7 E}
do not refuse your garment.

^{F# B F#}
Give to everyone who asks you;

^{C#}
and of him who takes what is yours
^{F#}
do not ask it back. (2x)

Love your enemies,
do good to those who hate you.
Do not judge, (repeat every verse)
do not condemn;
forgive,
and you will be forgiven;

(back to the initial tone)

Love your enemies,
do good to those who hate you.
Do not judge,
do not condemn;
forgive,
and you will be forgiven.
