

THE LORD HAS GIVEN ME: III SONG OF THE SERVANT (Is. 50, 4-10)

- C. ^{Bm} The Lord has ^C given me a
^{Bm} disciple's tongue,
^C So that I may bring to the wearied
^{Bm} a word of relief.
^C Morning after morning
^{Bm} you open my ear
^C so that I can listen
^{Bm} as a disciple.
- A. ^D THE LORD, ^{F#m} THE LORD, ^G THE LORD, ^{F#}
HAS OPENED MY EAR. (2)
- C. ^D For this I made no resistance, ^{F#m}
I made no resistance.
^D I offered my back to those who ^G struck me. ^{F#}
- A. ^D FOR THIS I MADE NO RESISTANCE ^{F#m}
I MADE NO RESISTANCE.
- C. ^D I offered my cheek to those who ^G tore my beard. ^{F#}

- A. ^D FOR THIS I MADE NO RESISTANCE ^{F#m}
I MADE NO RESISTANCE.
- C. ^D I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. ^G ^{F#}
^{Bm} Because I already knew ^C
^{Bm} that you would come to my help
^C for this I have set my face
^{Bm} hard as a flint:
^C I was sure that you would come to my help. ^{Bm}
- A. ^D IF YOU ARE, IF YOU ARE NEAR, IF YOU SAVE ME, ^{F#m} ^G
^{F#} WHO WILL FIGHT AGAINST ME?
^D IT YOU HELP, IF YOU HELP ME, IF YOU SAVE ME, ^{F#m} ^G
^{F#} WHO WILL DARE TO CONDEMN ME?
- C. ^{Bm} All of you who fear the Lord, ^C
^{Bm} listen to the voice of his servant:
^C if you find yourself in darkness
^{Bm} trust in the Lord,
^C trust in his Name. ^{Bm}
^D If you are, if you are near . . .
