

^F This is the night in which you have
^E conquered the darkness of sin.

A. ^{Am} THIS IS THE NIGHT
 IN WHICH CHRIST HAS DESTROYED DEATH,
 AND FROM THE ^F DEAD HE RISES ^E VICTORIOUS. (2)

C. ^{Am} How wonderful is the ^G mercy of your ^{Am} grace,
^C how boundless the ^{Am} tenderness of your love,
^G to ransom a slave you ^{Am} sacrificed your Son.
^F Without the sin of ^E Adam,
^F Christ would not have ^E redeemed us.

A. ^{Am} O HAPPY FAULT WHICH DESERVED
 SO GREAT A ^G SAVIOUR, O HAPPY ^{Am} FAULT! (2)

C. ^{Am} O Night truly ^G blessed which knew the hour in which ^{Am} Christ arose!
^{Am} O Night truly ^G blessed which despoiled the Egyptians to ^{Am} enrich Israel!
^{Am} O Night truly ^G blessed which conquers evil,
^{Am} washes guilt away!
^{Am} O Night truly ^G glorious which reconciles man to his ^F God! ^E

A. ^{Am} THIS IS THE NIGHT ... (2)

C. ^{Am} In this night receive, ^G heavenly Father,
 the ^{Am} sacrifice of praise
^C that the Church is offering you by the ^{Am} hand of her ministers
^G in the solemn liturgy of the candle,
 sign of the new ^{Am} Light.
 We pray you, O ^E Lord, ^{Am} let this candle, offered in honor of your ^G name,
 shine with ^{Am} light;
 Let it ascend to you like ^G fragrant perfume,
 let it mingle with the ^{Am} stars of heaven;
 may the morning star find this flame
^G still burning
^F the morning star which never ^E sets.
^{Am} Christ your Son risen from the ^G dead,
 makes his ^F light ^E brightly shine!

A. ^{Am} AMEN, ^G AMEN, ^{Am} AMEN.
^{Am} AMEN, ^G AMEN, ^{Am} AMEN.
