

JACOB (Gen. 32, 23-29)

C. ^{Am} It was already night

when Jacob got up,

^F took his wives

^E and all his children and crossed the ford of ^{Am} Jabbok.

After taking them

he made them cross the torrent

^F and also he sent across

^E all his goods

and Jacob remained alone. ^{Am}

^G And someone wrestled with him. ^{Am}

A. ^G AND SOMEONE WRESTLED WITH HIM. ^{Am}

C. ^G And someone wrestled with him
^{Am} until the dawn.

Seeing

^F that he could not win over him

he struck him in the joint of his hip

^E and Jacob's hip was dislocated

^{Am} in the wrestle with him.

^G Let me go for the day is breaking ^{Am}

A. ^G LET ME GO FOR THE DAY IS BREAKING. ^{Am}

C. ^G Let me go for the day is ^{Am} breaking.

C. ^C I will not let you go ^D
^F if you do not bless me. ^E | (Assembly repeats)

C. ^{E7} And God asked him: ^{Am}

"What is your name?"

"What is your name?"

^F "Jacob" he replied,

^E "Jacob" he replied.

^{E7} "You will not be called Jacob anymore. ^{Am}

A. ^G ISRAEL, ISRAEL, ^{Am}
^G ISRAEL WILL BE YOUR NAME. ^{Am}

^G ISRAEL: YOU HAVE DISCOVERED YOUR WEAKNESS. ^{Am}

^G ISRAEL, YOU SHALL LEAN ON GOD. ^{Am}

^G ISRAEL: STRONG WITH GOD, ^{Am}

^G ISRAEL: YOU SHALL WIN. ^{Am}

^G ISRAEL: YOU HAVE DISCOVERED YOUR WEAKNESS. ^{Am}

^G ISRAEL, YOU SHALL LEAN ON GOD. ^{Am}

C. ^G Israel, Israel, ^{Am}
^G Israel, Israel, ^{Am}
shall be your name.