

SHE-LAMB OF GOD (Mt. 1, 18ss)

Capo VI

C. ^{Em} It was the Virgin Mary,
^{Am} the promised bride of Joseph when before they came to live together she found herself pregnant by the work of the Holy Spirit. ^{B7} ^{Em} And Joseph who was just ^{Am} did not want to repudiate Her.
 He decided to send her away in secret. ^{B7}
 How bitter are the waters, Mary! ^{Em}

A. ^C SHE-LAMB OF GOD, HUMBLE LAMB, ^{Em} YOU WHO DO NOT RESIST EVIL:
^{Am} MOTHER OF JESUS AND OUR MOTHER,
 PRAY FOR US, ^{B7}
 PRAY FOR US! ^{Em}

C. ^{Em} And Mary gave birth to her son,
^{Am} she swaddled him and put him in a manger
^C because there was no room for them at any inn. ^{B7}
 How bitter are the waters, Mary! ^{Em}

C. ^{Em} And when Joseph awoke,
^{Am} he took with him the child and his mother
^C and In the night fled to Egypt because Herod was looking for the Child to ^{B7} kill him.
 How bitter are the waters, Mary! ^{Em}

A. ^C SHE-LAMB OF GOD ...

C. ^{Em} A cry is heard in Ramah, ay, ay, ay ...
^{Am} a cry and a great lamentation,
^C it is Rachel who weeps for her children and does not want to be consoled
^{B7} because they are no more.
 How bitter are the waters, Mary! ^{Em}

A. ^C SHE-LAMB OF GOD ...

C. ^{Em} And the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in Egypt and told him:
^{Am} "Get up and take with you the child and his ^C mother and go back to the land of Israel: ^{B7} because from Egypt I have called my son." ^{Em}
