

A. ^{Am} IN HEAVEN APPEARED THEN A ^G GRANDIOSE SIGN
^{Am} A WOMAN DRESSED WITH THE ^{Am} SUN
 WITH THE MOON UNDER HER FEET
^G AND ON HER HEAD A CROWN OF TWELVE STARS
^F SHE IS PREGNANT AND CRIES

^E FOR THE PAINS AND TRAVAILS OF DELIVERY.

C. ^{Am} Then another sign appeared in ^G heaven,
^F a huge red dragon with seven heads and ten horns.
^{Am} the dragon stood in front of the woman
^G who was about to bear a child
^F to devour the child as soon as he was born.
^{Am} The woman gave birth to a male child,
^G the One who is to rule the nations of the earth;
^F and her son was immediately taken up
^E to God and to his throne.

C. ^G And a war broke out in ^F heaven:
^{Am} Michael and his angels fought against the ^G dragon,
^F fought against the ^E dragon.
^{Am} The dragon fought together with his angels
^G but they did not prevail
^F and there was no longer any place for them in ^E heaven.
^{Am} The huge dragon,
^G the primeval serpent, who is called the devil and satan, A.

the seducer of the whole world
^F was thown down to the earth and his angels with him.

C. ^{Am} When the dragon saw that he was ^G
 thrown down to the earth
^F he rushed against the woman
^E who had borne the male child.
^{Am} But the woman was given the two wings of a great eagle ^G
 that she might fly into the desert
^F where she is to be nourished
^E a time, two times, and half a time.
^{Am} Then the huge dragon was enraged with the woman ^G
^F and went off to make war on the rest of her children;
^{Am} against those who keep the commandments of God ^E
 and have in themselves the witness of Jesus.
^{Am} Rejoice then, O heavens,
^G and you that dwell therein
^F because the accuser of our brothers
^E has been thrown down.
^{Am} But woe to you O earth and sea
^G because the devil has come down to you.
^F He is full of ^F fury
^E knowing that his time is short.
